A letter to the UCC Family of Faith: We can't let evil prevail

This call to action comes from the Conference Minister of the Penn Northeast Conference UCC, with the affirmation of the denomination's National Officers and the Rev. David Ackerman, Conference Minister of the Penn West Conference UCC.

The news over the past weeks has revealed an undercurrent of hate within our culture and our country. Between the assumption that immigrants walking nearly 2,000 miles seeking asylum are seen as a threat to our security; the pipe bombs mailed to those who oppose our current political administration; the massacre of 11 Jewish citizens during services at Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh; and the shooting of an African American man and woman in a grocery store after a failed attempt to enter a church of Black worshippers, it is hard to find cause for hope in our nation.

The rhetoric of hate and divisiveness calls for a response from the faith community. While we should not advocate for candidates or political parties, we must advocate for justice, humanitarian treatment of our neighbors, and for safety in our places of worship. We are a diverse nation and until recently that diversity has been seen as a strength. We, in the Church, must stand as moral authorities proclaiming peace and hope, compassion and justice.

Wherever and whenever you have the opportunity to provide wisdom and comfort, inspiration and compassion, I urge you to do so. To be silent is to let evil prevail and we, as people of faith, cannot do that, any more than Jesus could do it in his time and culture. Find a way to bring peace and hope to your faith communities, your communities, our state and our nations.

Today we are asking our members to write prayer notes or notes of compassion to our siblings at Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh. Mail them from your local church to them at 5898 Wilkins Ave, Pittsburgh, PA 15217.

Participate in a vigil or a peaceful worship process in any one of your communities and if there isn't one, please plan one.

If you are able, this would be a wonderful way to demonstrate solidarity with our Jewish siblings.

By all means pray but above all do not fail to speak out or to act. As Martin Niemöller wrote: "First they came for the Jews and I did not speak out because I was not a Jew. Then they came for the Communists and I did not speak out because I was not a Communist. Then they came for the trade unionists and I did not speak out because I was not a trade unionist. Then they came for me and there was no one left to speak out for me." [1]

We are called to be people of prayer, but we are also called to remember that "The Spirit of the LORD is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free (Luke 4:18). May we each and all do our part to make our communities, state and nation places of hope and peace.

Faithfully,
The Rev. Bonnie Bates, Conference Minister
Penn. Northeast Conference United Church of Christ

WHAT'S BEEN HAPPENING

Our Church celebrated the lives of member Bill Glander, and member Marie Linn's father, Dr. George Wagoner in November with memorial services in the sanctuary.

We lost another member this year – Bill Vander Molen.

The families have sent thank yous to the Church family for their support, meals, cards and well wishes.

Our prayers go out to the families for strength, love and faith in their time of grief.

The November 11 Harvest Feast, coordinated by Penny Phelps and her team, was a great success. There was a wonderful selection of food from the families in attendance.

Thank you, Penny & Team!!

Rev. John Doud and the church staff wish all of you a very Happy Thanksgiving.

The chorus will be accompanied by an orchestra comprised of local musicians.

SOUNDTRACK FOR A REVOLUTION

Feature Film

Soundtrack for a Revolution is a stirring, powerful documentary that traces the essential role that music played in the civil rights movement in unifying protestors as they fought for equal rights. The film combines powerful footage from the era with modern-day interviews with the men and women who fought to change the country, highlighting the empowering songs sung by these protestors. Featuring music from top contemporary artists including John Legend, Wyclef Jean, Richie Havens, and more. Soundtrack for a Revolution had its international premiere at the Cannes Film Festival and its North American premiere at the Tribeca Film Festival and was a film-goer favorite at the 5th Annual Traverse City Film Festival.

At a time in our nation when the rise of White Nationalism seems apparent, remembering the struggle for Civil Rights is essential. Disenfranchisement of any segment of society is unacceptable, whether it's the plight of people of a particular race, sexual orientation, religion, gender, or any element that distinguishes us as uniquely human. Music can speak the people's truth and encourage us to stand in support of ALL people, and this film embraces that concept.

THINKING AHEAD

(Article submitted by Laura Jacobson-Pentces. Unsure of the publication date, The Cadillac News)

Our current church building (meeting house) was erected in 1923 and dedicated in 1924. The Centennial celebration is being planned for 2023. The following is an interesting history of how we got here. I'm sure this will elicit "I remember when" conversations in the coming years. Watch for details about plans to celebrate our 100th anniversary.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IS ORGANIZED LOCALLY IN 1882

The Congregational church takes its stand among the older churches of the community having organized almost seventy years ago.

It was one Sunday during the spring of 1882 that several of the town's Congregationalists heard a sermon in the Methodist Episcopal church delivered by the late Dr. Charles Hallock Beal sent here by the superintendent of the Congregational churches of Michigan.

He was so well liked by those who heard him that the following morning he was summoned to the office of Jacob Cummer. Mr. Cummer, N.L. Gerrish, John G. Mosser, C.W. Higgins, E.F. Sawyer and Wellington W. Cummer discussed with Dr. Beal the possibilities of establishing a Congregational church in Cadillac.

Each of these men offered to donate what they could for the expense of the services and Mosser, at that time manager of the Cadillac Opera House on the lake shore, offered that building for meeting place, free of expense.

With these arrangements, Dr. Beal moved from Manistee to Cadillac and began preaching in the old Opera House.

A church association was formed in the fall of 1882, but it was not until the following year the Congregational church was officially organized. The Confession of Faith was written by Dr. Beal and has remained unchanged to this day.

The first church building was completed and dedicated on the present site in December, 1883. The dwelling house formerly on the property had been moved to the south end of the lot and was used as a parsonage until 1893. At that time it was removed to make room for an enlarged frame church structure.

The new church, on the site of the former one, was erected in 1923-24 and was dedicated April 27, 1924, during the pastorate of Rev. Jonathan Turner.

At present, the church membership numbers more than 300. Some of its organizations are: Congregators, Men's club, Pilgrim Fellowship, and Woman's Fellowship.

Pastors after Dr. Beal who served from 1882 to 1886, have been: A. O. Downs, 1886-1887; J. L. Mitchell, 1887-1890; W. A. Colledge, 1890-1896; N.S. Bradley, 1896-1902; H. C. McComas, 1903-1907; E. J. Millington, 1908-1911; A.S. Donat, 1912-1914; Jonathon Turner, 1914-1924; Percy Dawe, 1925-1935; Fosberg Hughes, 1935-1939; Paul Mallory, 1940-1942; Lewis Tillson, 1943-1947; and F. Ervin Hyde, 1947---
